

CONDITIONS SUBJECT TO WHICH DANGEROUS WILD ANIMAL LICENCE IS GRANTED:

- 1) The keeping of the animal must not give rise to complaint on grounds of safety, nuisance or otherwise.
- 2) The holder of the licence must be a suitable person to hold a licence under the Act.
- 3) The animal concerned will at all times:
 - a) be held in accommodation which secures that the animal will not escape, which is suitable as regards construction, size, temperature, lighting, ventilation, drainage and cleanliness and which is suitable for the number of animals proposed to be held in the accommodation, and
 - b) be supplied with adequate and suitable food, drink and bedding material and be visited at suitable intervals;
- 4) At all times appropriate measures must be in place to ensure the protection of any animal concerned in case of fire or other emergency;
- 5) All reasonable precautions will be taken at all such times to prevent and control the spread of infectious diseases;
- 6) While any animal concerned is at the premises where it will normally be held, its accommodation is such that it can take adequate exercise.
- 7) While any animal concerned is being kept only under the authority of the licence:
 - a) the animal shall be kept by no person other than such person or persons as is or are specified (whether by name or description) in the licence;
 - b) the animal shall normally be held at such premises as are specified in the licence;
 - c) the animal shall not be moved from those premises or shall only be moved from them in such circumstances as are specified in the licence;
 - d) the person to whom the licence is granted shall hold a current insurance policy which insures him and any other person entitled to keep the animal under the authority of the licence against liability for any damage which may be caused by the animal; and
- 8) The authority will apply conditions restricting the species (whether one or more) of animal, and number of animals of each species, which may be kept under the authority of the licence;
- 9) A copy of the licence must be available for inspection by any persons entitled to inspect the premises under the Act.
- 10) Any such other conditions as in the opinion of the authority are necessary or desirable for the purpose of securing the objects specified in paragraph (3)
